

See below for more details! (Note: disabling GPS on your device may affect the functionality of some apps and other services such as weather, maps, and turn by turn directions).

To Disable GPS on an Android Device:

Step 1: Select the Settings Button from the Main Screen

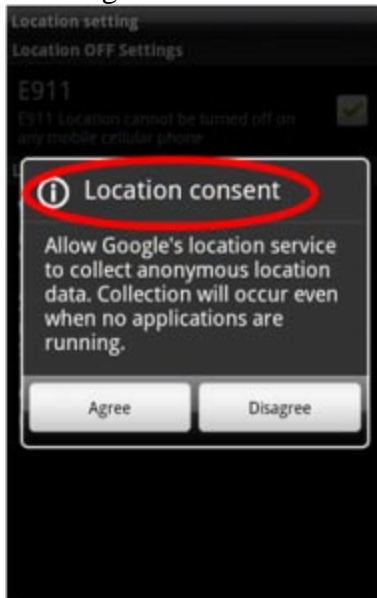

Step 2: Select the Location Tab

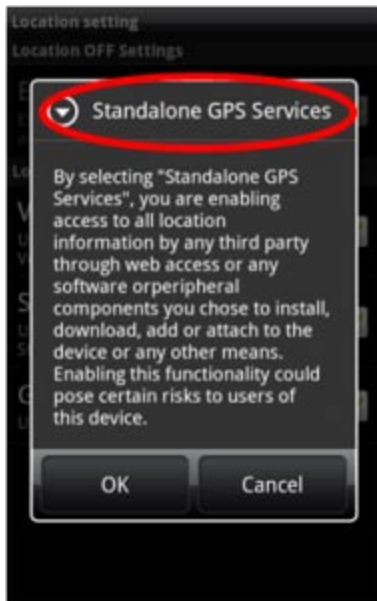

Step 3: Turn Location Settings off by “unchecking” gray boxes to the right

Warning Screens for each setting:

To Disable GPS on the iPhone:

Step 1: Go to Settings on the Main Screen

Step 2: Select General from the Settings Menu

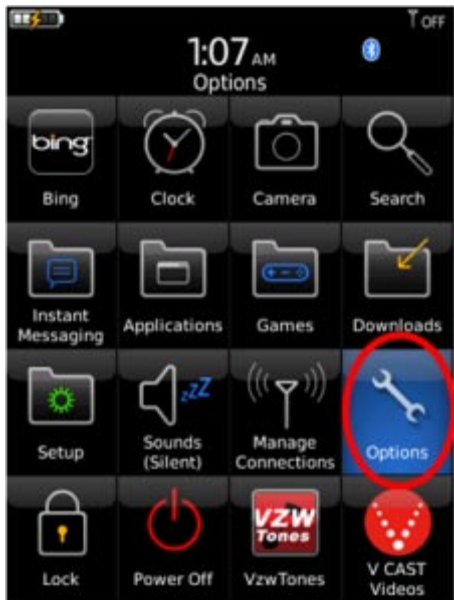

Step 3: Turn "Location Services" to Off

To Disable GBS on a Blackberry:

Step 1: Go to Options on the Main Screen

Step 2: Select “Advanced Options”

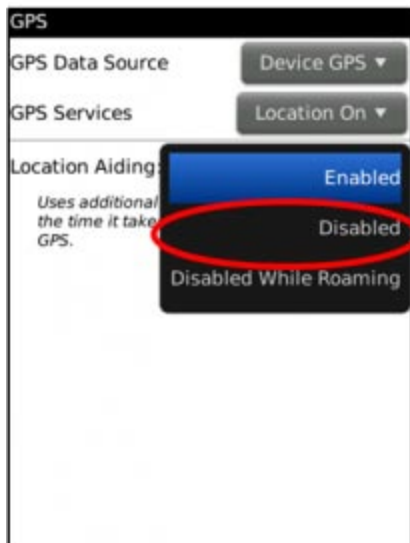

Step 3: Select “GPS”

Step 4: On the “GPS Services” Tab, select “E911 Only”

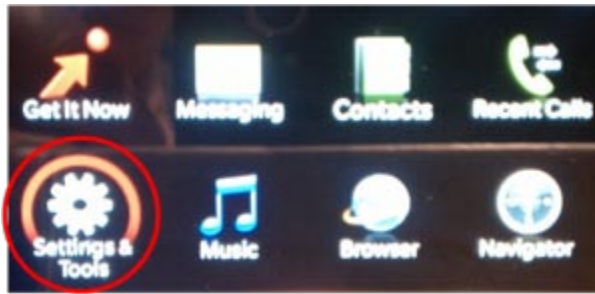

Step 5: Also on the same page, disable “Location Aiding”

To Disable GPS on a Feature Phone like the LG Voyager pictured here:

Step 1: Go to Settings & Tools on the Main Screen

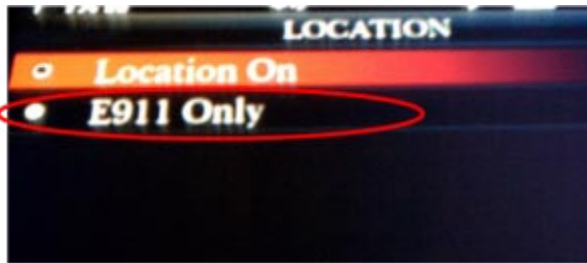

Step 2: Select Phone Settings

Step 3: Select Location

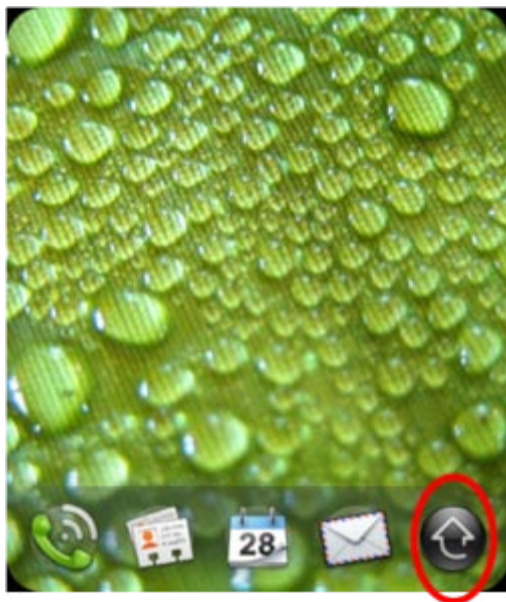

Step 4: Select "E911" Only

To Disable GPS on a Palm:

Step 1: Select the Menu Button

Step 2: Select the Location Services button:

Step 3: Turn Auto Locate Off

